The following are results of visual observation of CHINA BOOKS AND PERIODICALS (CBP) on 12/12/63:

HENRY and NICOLETTE NOYES

HENRY NOYES opened the store at 9:15 A.M., the mailman delivered at 9:40 A.M., and NICOLETTE arrived at 9:49 A.M. The mailman returned with a package at 10:00 A.M., and the lad from the Dutch Cafe, together with NICOLETTE NOYES, washed the CBP windows after he had finished with those of the Dutch Cafe. At 1:27 P.M., NICOLETTE left CBP and ran towards home. At 3:34 P.M., she was observed to get out of a 1963 or 1964 mustard colored car with California license CXN 719. The occupants of the car were two white (?) males 45-50 years of age, well dressed, wearing hats and overcoats. This license is registered to Carlease, Inc., 3312 Geary Boulevard, SF, with the legal owner being the Bank of America at Ocean and Faxon, San Francisco.

On 12/18/63, Mr. R.G. MC INTYRE, of Carlease, Inc., advised that this car was being leased to PAUL URABE, a Japanese male, age 25, who resides at 1798 Grove Street, SF. He is employed at the Tokamoto Company Real Estate Office, 1850 Fillmore, as a salesman, and was previously employed at the Davis Realty Office, 5000 Geary, and INO Merchandise Importers, 347 Grant Avenue. He has a checking account at the Bank of Tokyo in the Japan Center.

At 3:45, the lad from the Dutch Cafe entered CBP and he and NICOLETTE went to the Dutch Cafe and carried back several large parcels which had evidently <sup>been</sup> left by the mailman.

At 3:06 P.M., HENRY NOYES left CBP, locking the door, and walked to 190 Gough Street, a store with a "for rent" sign in the window. He wrote down data from the sign on the door and then walked to 230 Gough (at Hickory), another "for rent" store and wrote down data from that sign. He then returned to CBP. At 3:29 P.M., he left CBP, again locking the door, and walked north on Gough carrying a red-covered book. He was observed by the street man entering L and S Distributors, 552 McAllister.

UNSUB; DRIVER OF CAR REGISTERED TO LILLIAN FREED

At 10:29 A.M., an unknown white male, 5'9", 220 pounds, fat, wearing khaki pants, corduroy jacket and dark rimmed glasses, who appeared to be in his early 20's, drove to the front of CBP in a black Chevrolet sedan, California license CSN 210. He entered CBP carrying books. He left a few seconds later, walked to the Dutch Cafe, and waved through the window. NICOLETTE NOYES, who had been in the Dutch Cafe, came out and went into CBP with the UNSUB. The UNSUB left CBP at 10:44, not carrying anything, entered his car and drove south on Gough. This license is for a 1953 Chevrolet 4-door sedan, sole owner Lillian H. FREED, 1015 Brussels Street, San Francisco. LILLIAN HANNAH FREED, subject of SF file 100-29444, is married to MARTIN FREED, subject of SF file 100-29885. He is very active in the Progressive Labor organization. This UNSUB is very possibly the FREED's son. Photo 97-344-1A(62)

DON De LUCA

At 11:30, de LUCA parked his station wagon in front of CBP. NICOLETTE NOYES came out and talked to him briefly. He crossed Gough and disappeared at Gough and Hickory.

MERLE HONAKER, JR.

At 11:54, HONAKER (identified from photos) entered CBP wearing a pair of blue jeans, brown jacket and sandals. He departed at 11:55 and walked north on Gough. He was observed by the street man entering 895 Golden Gate.

Discussion Club and Latin American Committee were not on the roll call at the first meeting, 3/29/64. [REDACTED]

This last committee, according to [REDACTED] was added on 4/5/64, to those making up the organization.

JEFF FREED said he was associated with the Bay Area Labor League but was not the representative.

BEVERLY RADCLIFFE called the meeting on 4/5/64, to order as temporary chairman. She said anybody can attend the meetings but only those who are representatives of an organization can vote. They voted on the name of the committee and chose, after some discussion, that in the title.

Comment was made that the Contact Committee consisted of JOHN ZOLA and RICK MANDERFELD from San Francisco, JEFF WHITE and LARRY SCHUMM from the East Bay. RICK MANDERFELD's replacement was not reported.

A motion was passed to have an Action Committee and a Publicity Committee. It was agreed to have these committees elect their own chairmen. "MARTIN" CHASTAIN volunteered for the Action Committee and JEFF FREED for the Publicity Committee.

As for the organization of the over-all committee it was agreed that the executive committee would be composed of the chairman and the secretary, along with the chairman of each subcommittee.

A motion was made and passed to have a fund raising committee to work with the treasurer.

A motion was passed to have a demonstration on 5/2/64. The next meeting was set for Sunday, 4/12/64, at 2 PM.

This source on 4/5/64, in the evening, reported on a meeting of the Du Bois Club. BEVERLY RADCLIFFE at this meeting gave the correct name of the new committee. She said the words "Ad Hoc" will be used when necessary so the committee cannot be sued.

BEVERLY RADCLIFFE and RICK MANDERFELD were the DuBois Club representatives on 3/29/64. On 4/5/64, the representatives were RADCLIFFE and two others, possibly JEAN and PAT.

RADCLIFFE identified the committees as Publicity (of which HAL DRIGGS is a member), Contact, Action (JEAN PAT, are on this committee) and Education, of which BEVERLY RADCLIFFE is chairman.

The University of California's Vietnam Day Committee is expecting 30,000 people for its march against the Oakland bastion on November 20 according to Bob Rinaldo, a member of the SF State Vietnam Day Committee.

Rinaldo and Jeff Freed, another VDC member, went to a meeting of the Berkeley VDC Sunday and offered march monitors from this campus for the November march.

The march will go ahead, Rinaldo said, even if Berkeley denies a parade permit. The University and city have reached an agreement on future marches.

If the city denies a parade permit, the University will deny the marchers the right to assemble on the campus.

Rinaldo said the Berkeley VDC is hoping for a permit,

"They don't want anything to happen . . . they want a peaceful march . . . to display their grievances."

The November march will have a twofold purpose, Rinaldo said, to protest the war and to protest Oakland's denial of a parade permit for earlier anti-war demonstrations.

Peaceful assembly and petition of grievances are constitutionally guaranteed. Rinaldo said, therefore if Oakland and Berkeley deny a parade permit they will be unconstitutional.

Rinaldo said the SF State VDC is planning rallies on the Speakers Platform against the Vietnam War and for the right to protest government policy.

By PHIL GARLINGTON
Five SF State students prominent in the peace movement said yesterday their home telephones were being tapped, presumably by the FBI.

The students, who are all members of the Student Peace Union, said they were told if FBI informants were in their midst.

The question was in connection with a report that a student had been paid by the FBI to spy on campus.

King, a member of the Student Peace Union, said the VNUC, Jeff Green, the VNUC secretary, and Edna Hall-inan, chairman of the W. G. DuBois Club, all said their telephones were tapped. Two other students were suspicious but not certain their phones also were "bugged."

The leaders of the peace groups said they knew of cases of FBI informants in the past but didn't know anyone engaged in spying now.

Miss Hallinan charged someone was tapping her phone. "I don't mind that so much," she said, "because I have nothing to hide, but I wish they wouldn't foul up the service."

Her phone, she said, has been tapped since she became

...the DuBois Club two years ago.

On the subject of FBI informers in the student peace movement, Freed said a girl had been planted in the DuBois Club last spring by the FBI to get the mailing list.

The five officials were unenthusiastic in saying they were concerned about the possibility FBI informers have penetrated their ranks.

"I can't see why they'd bother," Freed said, "I'm not worried about my political activities."

"We don't even take the time to think about spies," said one VNDC official, "we have nothing to hide; our meetings are open."

According to Freed, members of the student peace movement have been harassed with evidence resulting from tapped telephone calls. He said employers were contacted by the FBI and told a employee was under investigation for "subversive activities." Furthermore, he said the FBI made similar visits to landlords and neighborhood boards.

Miss Hallinan said she knew of no informers here but that her husband, who is chairman of the UC DuBois Club, "knew of at least four FBI informers," at Cal.

The only concrete evidence of "spying" turned up was a result of a charge made by several VNDC members that the Young Americans for Freedom had a photographer at several anti-war activities taking pictures of participants.

Harvey Hukari, president of the VAF, confirmed this. He said the group had taken pictures at the recent anti-war march-in here and during the Berkeley marches for purposes of "public information campaigns," and in order to "know your enemy."

A big debate at a small 'town meet'

By JACOB J. SCHWARTZ

The keynote of the celebration of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was a controversial address made not on that subject, as a Town Meeting, but on the subject of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The speaker, Professor John F. Kennedy, Jr., of the University of Virginia, spoke at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, but when the podium was taken over by the audience, only one subject was discussed: the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

The debate that took place in the hall of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was a debate on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The speaker, Professor John F. THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN VDC

1970-1971 Academic Year

December 9, 1965

Dear Action Committee Members,

I am sorry that I have not taken the time to write to you earlier, however, the demands of responsibility to the VDC and to my own education have tended to keep me down. I am sure that you are well aware that the war in Vietnam has entered a new and more serious phase. Recently, our government has committed itself to increasing the military force in Vietnam from 175,000 troops to 400,000 troops in 1970. Moreover, all indications are that more "aggressive bombing" to the north will be resumed. While we have not been able to do so much in the past, we all get together to discuss the future plans of the Action Committee.

I fully realize that a 5 minute meeting would be a waste of time and the only solution is to have a full and open discussion. Therefore, I have arranged to have a meeting of the Action Committee for Friday, December 17, 1965 at 5:00 PM in the 3rd office in the 3rd. The purpose of this meeting is to let you in on what this war is all about and how it is being handled. It is to provide to the north a more realistic picture of the war in Vietnam. It is to provide to the south a more realistic picture of the war in Vietnam. It is to provide to the north a more realistic picture of the war in Vietnam. It is to provide to the south a more realistic picture of the war in Vietnam.

During the last 24 hours, the number of troops in the 3rd office has increased from 1,200 to 1,500. This is a significant increase and it is a reflection of the fact that the war in Vietnam is becoming more serious. It is a reflection of the fact that the war in Vietnam is becoming more serious. It is a reflection of the fact that the war in Vietnam is becoming more serious. It is a reflection of the fact that the war in Vietnam is becoming more serious.

Copies of this memorandum have been furnished to local intelligence agencies of the United States Army, Navy, and Air Force.

Inspector Benjamin Lashkoff, Intelligence Unit, San Francisco Police Department, San Francisco, California, informed on March 7, 1966, that Robert Rinaldo, 1931 Oak Street, who described himself as the Bay Area Coordinator for the Vietnam Committees in the Bay Area; Mrs. Pat Thalheimer, 76 Divisadero Street, San Francisco, who described herself as a representative from the Haight-Ashbury Vietnam Committee; and Jeff Freed, 1015 Brussels Street, San Francisco, who described himself as a representative of the San Francisco State College Vietnam Day Committee, had appeared before him for the purpose of obtaining a parade permit for March 26, 1966.

The two above-mentioned committees are self described as autonomous committees whose purposes are to protest United States foreign policy, particularly in Vietnam.

A source in November, 1965, identified Jeff Freed as a member of the DuBois Clubs of America (DCA).

A characterization of the DCA is attached hereto.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 13-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

As of October, 1965, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 954 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California.

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois. According to a third source, a new slate of national officers was elected at this conference, which included Chairman HUGH STERLING FOWLER, II (who, according to the third source, attended a CP cadre encampment held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, in June, 1965, and following his election as Chairman of the DCA, attended another national CP cadre youth conference held on September 9-12, 1965, on a farm located in Northern Indiana, according to a fourth source); Director of Publicity CARL ELLENGER BLOICE (who was elected to the San Francisco County Committee CP in April, 1964, according to a fifth source); Educational Director MATTHEW "DYNAMITE" HALLINAN (who in June, 1964, was stated to be the Youth Representative on the Northern California CP District Board, according to a sixth source); Organizational Secretary TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN (who, according to a seventh source, met in June, 1965, with the District Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Summer Project), and Treasurer SUSAN PHYLLIS BORENSTEIN (who, according to an eighth source, has attended meetings of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois during 1965 in connection with the DCA Summer Project).

VIETNAM PROTEST <sup>MARCH</sup> 26

Bay Area peace organizations meeting Sunday set March 26 for a massive march down Market Street in San Francisco to protest the war in Vietnam.

The march is scheduled to start at the Ferry Building at 1 p.m. and file seven abreast to the Civic Center for a rally. The theme, mourning for the dead of the Vietnam war, will be stressed by the bearing of caskets, urging participants to wear black, and by a "funeral procession" of cars at the end of the parade.

Leaders of the march are meeting with the San Francisco police this week to obtain a parade permit to block off one or two lanes of Market Street. If the permit is granted it will be possibly the first peace march ever down Market Street, certainly the first in a number of years. Between five and ten thousand are expected to participate.

March headquarters has been set up at 1035 Post. The phone number is 775-8848. Volunteers are needed to man the office and to help on various committees. If you want more information or would like to help, call the following chairmen: March mechanics Jeff Freed, 586-7560; Publicity--Pat Thalheimer, 431-8260; Rally--Judy Palmer, 661-5795; Special effects (tone of the march)--Marilyn Goldmers, 597-6450; Coordinating (contacting other groups)--Delores DeCarli, 861-5642.

students can spend much more time together than non-students? Is the tremendous amount of decentralization in SDS good or possible for an adult group? Can the SDS style be maintained? Will an adult organization attract non-exclusionary, experimentally inclined people? From where does an organizational identity emerge? What is the perimeter of people we want to attract? How has SDS prevented rigidity from setting in? Is rigidity more of a problem for an adult group? How do we build a personal community of love and understanding without withdrawing from political involvement with the society out there? There are many more questions and whole areas of discussion which could be added to the list, but this seems to me a fine beginning in an attempt to define what we want. Others are welcome to join in our talks. For further information call the SDS office--362-7928,

'$70,000 for one Viet Cong'

Armed with colorful charts, an elaborate magnetic map and factual material dittoed on a handout, a three man team of students in the department of international relations briefed an overflow audience Monday on the war in Vietnam.

Although a world business major who left the hour long briefing early considered the presentation "one-sided and leftist," most of the students seemed impressed with this, the first of a series of public briefings that will be offered by the newly created International Relations Center.

With information obtained from official government handouts, domestic and foreign newspapers, direct correspondence and short-wave broadcasts, members of the Vietnam Task Force covered the current state of the Southeast Asian war in detail.

The students evidently had done their homework carefully, and they tried to present an unbiased picture of virtually all aspects of the situation in Vietnam.

But clearly it is difficult to present an objective picture of a situation as confused and controversial as the war in Vietnam. As one of the briefing officers noted, much of the data are conflicting.

"One of the most confusing aspects of the war," said Offie Wortham, the panel's military specialist, is the matter of casualty reports. One reads of losses sustained by the National Liberation Front troops and wonders how there can continue to be enough VC left to fight, he said.

This can partially be explained by the way enemy dead and wounded are counted, Wortham said. He noted that body counts reported by the US and their South Vietnamese allies includes non-combatants along with VC troops killed by US firepower.

He said that during 1965 probably 25,000 villagers and 11,000 VC were killed. This estimation was based on official statistics.

Emphasizing the nature of counter-insurgency warfare, Jeff Freed, another speaker, said the British employed fifty counter-guerrillas for each guerrilla in their suppression of an insurgency war in Malaya. "Even with this high ratio in favor of the British, the rebels were never completely eliminated," he said.

The French had a favorable ratio of ten-to-one in Algeria but they lost the war, he added. He used official US figures to point out that the US and South Vietnamese forces presently have a favorable kill ratio of 2.4 to one which he said was far from adequate to achieve an allied victory.

But the US is attempting to make up the difference through a heavy reliance on its firepower. At present $110,000 worth of ammunition a month is being expended and it is costing the US $70,000 for each dead Communist, the Task Force noted.

Eugene Peters wrapped up the briefing with a survey of the internal political situation. "Events of the past few days — especially the ouster of Nguyen Chanh Thi — indicate the 10 months of apparent stability of the Nguyen Cao Ky regime was illusory," he said.

Noting that political stability was necessary if the US was to win in Vietnam, he suggested such stability was unlikely at present.

"It is questionable how long Ky will remain in power," he said.

Marshall Windmiller, associate professor of International Relations, the Task Force's faculty coordinator, said that the briefing was an experiment.

Students in Mississippi

Their summer vacation

(Editor's note: About 750 students spent the summer in Mississippi, working to achieve equality for Negroes who live in the "Magnolia State." Four students from SF State: Sharon Anderson, Sue Sanford, Larry Lockshin and Margaret Benes, participated in the Mississippi Summer Project. This is what they saw, heard, and accomplished.)

Larry Lockshin, a pre-law student, considered his assignment—Greenville—as one of the "easiest." According to Lockshin there have been no arrests of civil rights workers in Greenville, and the Negro there is "more secure" than in most Southern areas.

"There isn't any Ku Klux Klan or White Citizens' Council in Greenville," Lockshin said. The citizens had petitioned to bar the two organizations from the town.

"But," he added, "in Lealand, only seven miles away, is one of the strongest KKK chapters in the area."

Margaret Benes, a psychology major, was assigned to Madison County. Madison County is Negro.

Miss Benes said, in regard to housing of civil rights workers:

"People were afraid to offer houses at first," she said, "but it was wonderful, to have families in tiny places up in the hills offer to house us."

Workers in Jackson, Mississippi, had to find their own housing. In some areas "sympathetic" white businessmen offered their hotels and motels to the workers for a nominal fee, Miss Benes said.

"But most of them were in some secure position," she added, "... like, the brother of a sheriff."

The project was sponsored by the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), formed a year ago specifically to coordinate the 1964 Summer Project.

Organizations incorporated in COFO included SNCC, CORE, the Southern Christian Leadership Council, and the National Council of Churches.

750 volunteers, including a staff of 250, participated in the Summer Project. Doctors, lawyers and ministers also volunteered their time on a weekly basis, according to Jeff Freed, chairman of the campus Friends of SNCC.

Twenty-one applications were received by SNCC last spring. After screening by the SNCC Board, the applications were sent to Atlanta, Georgia for final selection of delegates.

SNCC initiated the project in McComb, Mississippi; but when eight bombings occurred in a week and a half, they transferred their facilities to other Mississippi areas.

There are certain areas of Mississippi where civil rights workers don't go.

"It isn't worth a human life just to achieve letter-of-the-law application," Lockshin said.

"Before this summer federal help was nebulous, according to Lockshin, 'but just the presence of the FBI this summer helped, even if they didn't do much.'"

FBI agents were formerly local people appointed to the position. This is no longer the case, according to Lockshin. The FBI agents worked in teams consisting of two Northern agents and two Southern agents.

"They'd come into our offices and cheerfully ask if we had any complaints — but they'd usually come when the leaders and most of the workers weren't there," Miss Anderson said.

Regarding privacy, the workers found both their postal and telephone communications were under close observations.

"Most of our letters were opened before we got them," Miss Anderson said, "and they (postmen) were so blatant about it that they didn't even bother to re-wrap packages before delivering them."

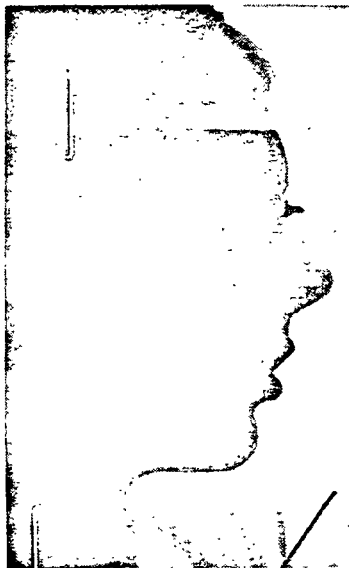

"It doesn't take nine days for an air-mail letter to get from San Francisco to Mississippi," she concluded.

A delegation protested to the local post office, where they were told that it was "impossible that anyone could have tampered with their mail."

"We could tell the lines were tapped," said Freed, recalling a long-distance call between he and Miss Anderson this summer.

"There was either a knocking sound on the line or a whirring noise," he said, "and one of our workers heard a tape playing in the background when he made a call—the tape was a recording of a conversation he had had earlier." (Continued Monday.)

SF Friends of SNCC say 'all in our hands'

By GEORGE BOARDMAN

"Everything now, we must assume, is in our hands; we have no right to assume otherwise."

These words by James Baldwin, posted under a political advertisement for Eugene "Bull" Connor, can be found in the cluttered office of the SF State Friends of SNCC.

The words of America's foremost Negro author and a boost for the deposed police commissioner of Birmingham, Ala., may seem incongruous, but it illustrates the position of the Friends of SNCC.

Affiliated with a direct action group, they spend most of their time raising money and sending books to the South.

Whites lead the affiliate of an organization that was created by and is lead by Negroes. In an area of continuous civil rights activity, the San Francisco group can claim only 25 active members.

But SF State's contribution to the civil rights movement believes it is doing a job necessary to end discrimination in America.

"We try to get students active, to work," Jeff Freed, executive director, said. "We'll take anyone."

The Friends have raised $500 for the current Mississippi Summer Project, and have also contributed 75 cases of books and four field workers.

AS President Joe Persico, his predecessor, Tom Ramsay, and others formed the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee affiliate a year ago. It has 200 people on its mailing list.

National SNCC was formed by Negro students in the South in 1961 to coordinate work to end segregation. As originally conceived, the Northern affiliates would provide spiritual and material aid.

But the Friends are now more active. Four SF State students are currently working in the South.

Larry Lochshin is working in the Greenville, Miss., voter-registration drive; Sharon Anderson, Karen Duncan and Sue Sanford are working in Canton, Miss., education and research projects.

"We try to get away from quantities of people."

The second-semester junior said he has been involved in civil rights "ever since I was born," which was 21 years ago last Tuesday.

"I was brought up with the conviction that I must fight for my rights and those of others," he added.

Freed said discrimination won't end with passage of the Civil Rights act.

"I'm very pessimistic about it because . . . if history runs true to course, it's just another means of using Negroes to elect politicians to office."

to elect politicians to office."

To aid in the act's implementation, the Friends will act as a publicity outlet for the Mississippi Project in San Francisco and try to aid its own people in the South.

The four SF State students currently in the South have limited funds and "many will have to forego their education if they don't get money," Freed said.

VNDC, YAF PLAN VIET RALLIES

Indicate page, name of newspaper, city and state.)

Viet Day Committee ... Young Americans for Freedom

The Vietnam Day Committee (VNDC) hopes to "hit this campus big" today.

Plans for this goal, for Friday's Teach-in on the Asiatic War, and for the October 17 "Peace March" from Golden Gate Park to the Civic Center were mapped out at a meeting Monday.

The meeting agenda included getting volunteers to pass out leaflets, put up banners, monitor the Teach-in and March, and to bring speakers from Berkeley and San Jose State to SF State.

Jeff Freed, VNDC actions chairman, led the meeting. He asked for volunteers to distribute leaflets saying the VNDC "must hit this campus big on Wednesday."

Volunteers to monitor the Teach-in were also requested. The monitors will handle any possible trouble between the Teach-in proponents and the Young Americans for Freedom pro-Vietnam Rally also scheduled for Friday.

Freed said he does not expect any trouble to develop because of the opposing YAF Rally. The Teach-in will be held outside the Redwood Room. The YAF Rally is scheduled for the Speaker's Platform.

Tentative speakers for the Teach-in were announced by Sue Cloke.

M. S. Arnoni, "Minority of One" editor; Paul Krassner, "The Realist" editor; Fannie Lou Hamer, leader of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party; Dave Delinger, "Liberation" editor; Mike Myerson, international secretary for the WEB DuBois Clubs; and Robert Browne, ex-State Department officials are all tentatively scheduled to speak.

Poets Alan Ginsberg and Lawrence Ferlinghetti are also scheduled.

Local politicians opposing the Vietnam war are also tentatively scheduled. William Stanton, San Jose Democratic assemblyman; and Willie Brown and John Burton, both San Francisco Democratic assemblymen, are expected.

The Young-Americans for Freedom (YAF) will test their audience appeal Friday with a rally designed to compete directly with the Vietnam Day Committee's anti-war demonstration.

SF State's conservative political group, offering five speakers and a rock-and-roll band, will enter the fray with one distinct advantage—excellent field position.

YAF's rally will be presented on the Speaker's Platform from 12 noon until 4 p.m., while the VDC demonstration will be between the Redwood Room and the Coffee Shop from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

At an organizational meeting last Monday, Harvey Hukari, president of the campus YAF chapter, gave instructions for no provocations on the part of his group.

According to Hukari, the purpose of the rally is to give students the opportunity to hear the point of view of the Vietnam situation which has never been fully represented on this campus.

"It's about time that we had a hearing as well," he said.

Hukari expressed displeasure with statements made recently by VDC spokesmen. He said that the members of his organization had been "falsely pictured as an ill-mannered, hostile group."

"The commentaries published in last Wednesday's Gater illustrate the immaturity and disorderly behavior which has characterized the VDC's other activities such as stopping troop trains in Berkeley and harrassing General Maxwell Taylor during his visit to San Francisco," Hukari said, leveling a blast at the opposition.

"YAF members have never engaged in acts of civil disobedience or of disrespect for law and order," he added.

The main speaker at the YAF rally will be Tom Huston, the group's national chairman from the Indiana University School of Law.

Other speakers will include:

- Jack Cox, California chairman of YAF.

- Stanford professor Lewis Gann, a member of the Hoover Institute.

- Dan Rosenthal, vice-president of the Victory In Vietnam Association (VIVA), a UC Berkeley group, and

- Randy Grindle, an ex-Socialist from John Hopkins University.

A San Jose rock-and-roll group, Terry and the Pirates, will offer entertainment between the speakers.

Hukari said that YAF chapters throughout California are planning to stage rallies of a nature similar to the one here.

Freed said the VNDC is also trying to get entertainers such as the Committee, the Mime Troupe and John Handy.

SF State faculty members will also speak at the Teach-in. They are Herbert Williams, anthropology; Marshall Windmiller, international relations; Henry McGuckin, speech; Pat Gleason, English, and Theodore Keller, international relations.

Freed also encouraged VNDC members to request classes be dismissed from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. by their instructors.

San Jose State College and the University of California at Berkeley are also having Teach-ins Friday.

Draft alternatives: expatriation and 'swishing around'

ite page, name of aper, city and state.)

By STEVEN J. CASEY

Expatriation was the dominant theme as participants in the Vietnam Day Committee's (VDC) second workshop discussed the draft system and its relation to college students.

Jeff Freed of the VDC said the forum was intended to give students "a chance to investigate alternatives to the draft or choices within the draft system."

"I'm sure most of you are concerned with maintaining your II-S classification," Freed told his 40 listeners.

"Or getting it back," one of them amended.

SF State student Dan Waskey, who has investigated expatriation as an alternative to the draft, spoke on the virtues of becoming a Canadian citizen.

"There are several ways to avoid participating in the US policy of militarism," he said.

Besides "going down (to the examining center) high," one can "always swish around and get out of it that way," Waskey said.

He also mentioned that a man can "be a martyr" by refusing to serve in the armed forces and accepting imprisonment as a "political prisoner."

"Or you, if you're non-violent, can be a C.O. (conscientious objector), if you believe in all that nonsense," he said.

The best thing, Waskey concluded, is to leave the country.

In Canada, a $26 bus ride north, Waskey believes he has found an answer.

Canada has a living standard comparable to that of the US, and American immigrants "are particularly welcome," according to Waskey.

From immigration information and from correspondence with friends who have fled the US to avoid the draft, Waskey discovered numerous benefits to life in Canada.

"A person with two years of college is on equal footing, as far as finding a job goes, with Waskey, 28, is over the draftable age. He was discharged after two years service in the Air Force as a result of going AWOL four months.

The only qualifications for Canadian immigrants are that they be in good health, "which means they can't have T.B.," and of good moral character, Waskey said.

"I asked the gentleman downtown what that meant and apparently I qualify, so restrictions must be rather loose," Waskey said.

After five years of residence in Canada one becomes a citizen "almost automatically," he said.

If one breaks no laws, there should be no problem in regaining American citizenship, Waskey said, but he admitted it's "up to the State department."

VIET NAM WAR BLAMED FOR DU BOIS BOMBING

"Of course there are Communists in our organization. Anybody can join."

So proclaimed Mathew (Dynamite) Hallinan, national committeeman of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, during a Friday Speakers Platform rally.

The noontime gathering wasn't attracting to many students until Hallinan began his oration.

He summarized the reasons for the Sunday morning bombing of the Club's national headquarters in San Francisco by saying that "the brutality of Viet Nam makes people inured to violence and murder. They are reluctant to put down any violence in the South."

"This poses a serious threat to democracy."

Viet Nam wasn't the only problem blamed for the violence the Du Bois Club currently records.

Referring to Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach's order that the Club register as a Communist front organization, Hallinan said, "I blame the violence on Katzenbach. Without his stamp of approval, it never would have come to this."

During the rally, anti-Du Bois Club literature was being circulated by unidentified students.

Listing the "facts" about the Club, it warned students that "you are the target, don't be the victim."

The pamphlet was published by the Catholic War Veterans, Department of Pennsylvania, but many students refused a copy.

Another speaker, Jeff Freed, representing the Viet Nam Day Committee, defied anyone "to name any Communist action organization that controls the Club."

"Basically," he said, "they are only attempting to frighten you. Are you going to be

MATHEW HALLINAN
"people inured to violence"

frightened out?"

One student timidly replied, "yes."

Freed explained that his tactics would be to use the "blow their minds" method of fighting the order.

"We're going to blow all your minds by calling everyone comrade."

Jimmy Garrett, a student and member of SNCC who joined the DuBois Club recently, had less to say than the others, but advised everyone to "keep disrupting and keep in motion."

Dale Gronemeier agreed with the other speakers especially concerning the "total irresponsibility of the McCarran Act," which requires all Communist front organizations to register with the Federal Government.

Gronemeier, West Coast Regional Director of the National Committee to abolish HUAC, said that "the McCarran Act, written 15 years ago, has to be rewritten."

"It was constructed so that no group can register. Since its inception, 23 groups and 34 individuals have been ordered to register as Communists or Communist organizations."

"All of these cases have been thrown out of court," Gronemeier said, "but most of the groups involved have been driven out of existence."

Those ordered to register are also fined $10,000 per day until they do so. Hallinan said, "We will spend almost no time, energy or money in courts on this."

"We will step up our program by fighting against the immediate issues—Viet Nam, the civil rights issue, and other problems."

"There must be an alternative to the mess we're living in today."

Gronemeier commended the Club on its response to the Katzenbach order. "The response has been magnificent."

"The DuBois Club has become the central battleground in the fight for civil liberty. The DuBois Club fight is everyone's fight."

At that moment he took a dollar bill from his wallet and joined the Club himself, since "their fight is my fight."

CHINA BOOKS AND PERIODICALS
also known as Peking Books

In June, 1960, a source made available a slip of paper entitled, "Announcements from 1960", signed HENRY H. NOYES, Manager, which read as follows:

"I am happy to take this opportunity to announce my new firm, China Books and Periodicals, located in Chicago at 334 West Schiller Street, formed for the purpose of importing publications from the China Mainland and distributing them in the United States on a Nationwide basis. An Import License has been issued to me by the United States Treasury to do business as a representative of Guozi Shudian, the book exporting firm in Peking."

Guozi Shudian translated into English is International Book Store. It is operated by the Chinese Communist Government.

Records of the Foreign Agents Registration Section, U. S. Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., as of October, 1963, reflect that a supplemental registration executed on April 27, 1963, by HENRY HALSEY NOYES for the six month period ending April 6, 1963, reveal that NOYES, a Canadian citizen doing business as China Books and Periodicals, 334 West Schiller Street, Chicago, Illinois, had two foreign principals, i. e. LU PING, Circulation Manager of the magazine "China Reconstructs", Wai Wen Building, Peking, China, and F. S. LEONG, Export Department, "Guozi Shudian", P. O. Box 339, Peking, China.

Also on file was a letter received August 15, 1963, from HENRY HALSEY NOYES advising NOYES' change of address for China Books and Periodicals from 334 West Schiller Street to 292 Gough Street, San Francisco, California.

In June, 1959, a second source advised that on June 2, 1959, HENRY NOYES attended a meeting of the Communist Party (CP) Machinists Group Number Two, in Chicago, and at this meeting gave a dissertation of "KHRUSHCHEV's Central Control Figures for the Economic Development of the USSR, 1959-65."

A third source, in February, 1963, stated that it had been learned from top leaders of the CP, USA, that NOYES is openly following the CP of China line and he is very pro-Chinese in his sympathies with regard to the ideological differences between Moscow and Peking.

A fourth source advised in June, 1964, that as of July 1, 1964, China Books and Periodicals would be doing business at their new location 2929 - 24th Street, San Francisco.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a west coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that, "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

Paulson and VDC clash on test ban

By PHIL GARLINGTON

Acting President Stanley Paulson said the Vietnam Day Committee was a scapegoat to get himself off the hook on the draft tests, a panel of campus leaders charged yesterday.

In a panel of comments led by the VDC, AS president Jim Harris, VDC chairman Jack Freed and an AS president Larry Hoffman said the selective service examiners were unethical and the results of "disastrous" by the VDC.

"The real issue was the faculty evaluation of these tests," Harris said.

According to the panel, the ethical matter that was left out of the recent controversy over the cancellation of the draft tests was the unanimous passage of a resolution by the Academic Senate to ban the test.

Harris and VDC are still Paulson's political move for the last election after the faculty to the students by saying the VDC was planning to disrupt the test with a strike.

VDC continues to lead and executive committee member Bob Hines said the national group had made plans to demonstrate.

"The students should be furious at the irresponsible members of the administration," McGuckin said.

Henry McGuckin, professor of speech, representative of the Academic Senate at the conference, said the Senate's report then asked the administration not to limit the test, and not to estimate the responsibility for that decision.

McGuckin challenged the fairness and validity of the test in determining who gets drafted.

He said "culturally deprived" college students are disadvantaged by the test because they haven't been educated by their environment for scholastic achievement. Also, he said, many "poor kids" are at a further disadvantage because they have to work.

"Furthermore," McGuckin said, "culturally disadvantaged students who must interrupt their education for two years because of the draft are less likely to complete school. This is not in the student's interest or the national interest."

McGuckin said it was impossible to determine "the lifetime worth" of a student by a test.

"The government is forcing students to cheat, to fiddle and to prostitute themselves to get grades and stay out of the army," McGuckin said.

Nixon said that since competent faculty members were challenging the criteria by which students are selected the acting president should request the resolution from the faculty.

Although the cancellation of the draft test received nationwide news coverage, no mention of the faculty resolution was made by Paulson.

In Freed's opinion, the VDC got already too much credit for halting the test.

"We just sent Paulson a letter saying we want to take appropriate action to stop the test. What we wanted was a meeting with the administration. The letter was the direct result of the faculty resolution," Freed said.

In a statement released late yesterday, Paulson said he had been under pressure from "four groups" to stop the test, but did not name the groups.

Referring to the Senate resolution, Paulson said the criteria for determining draft status is "a valid issue . . . that deserves careful study."

The May 10, 1966, issue of the "Golden Gater", San Francisco State College campus publication, in an article entitled "Paulson and VDC Clash on Test Ban", reported that in a press conference called by the Vietnam Day Committee (VDC), a panel of campus leaders identified as Associated Student (AS) President Jim Nixon, VDC Chairman Jeff Freed, and ex-AS President Terry Mc Gann denied the selective service exams were cancelled at San Francisco State College because of "threats" by the VDC. They charged that Acting President Stanley Paulson used the VDC as a scapegoat to get himself off the hook on the draft tests. of the draft tests was the unanimous passage of a resolution by the Academic Senate to ban the test. Nixon and Mc Gann said Paulson switched blame for the test cancellation from the faculty to the students by saying the VDC was planning to disrupt the tests with demonstrations. VDC Chairman Freed and Executive Committeeman Bob Rinaldo denied the antiwar group had made plans to demonstrate. A representative of the Academic Senate at the conference said the Senate's resolution asked the administration not to host the test and not to calculate class standings for draft boards.

The article also stated that although the cancellation of the draft test received nationwide news coverage, no mention of the faculty resolution was made by Paulson. In Freed's opinion, the VDC got entirely too much credit for halting the tests. The article quoted Freed as saying, "We just sent Paulson a letter saying we would take appropriate action to stop the tests. What we wanted was a meeting with the administration. VIETNAM DAY COMMITTEE (VDC)

A booklet published by the VDC contained the following policy statement of the VDC adopted by the general membership, June, 1965:

The Vietnam Day Committee is a group of students, faculty and other members of the Bay area community opposed to American intervention in Vietnam, the Dominican Republic and wherever else it may occur. Revolutionary struggles for self-determination are sweeping the world today. American suppression of these movements, we believe, is immoral and a threat to the peace of the world. The Vietnam Day Committee is organizing non-violent direct actions, teach-ins, door-to-door organizing and other educational activities to oppose American intervention. We believe that the struggle for self-determination in other countries is related to the struggle for democracy in America - - a democracy in which the people have the facts and the power to make decisions for themselves. The struggles in America against racism, poverty and bureaucratic conformity are part of the same movement as the struggle against American militarism. We must build a New America and join with those people in Asia, Africa, and Latin America building a New World.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" ("YS"), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication "YS."

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the "YS" have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 7, 1965, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left-socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 7, 1965, YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA is located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Action Committee of the San Francisco State College Vietnam Day Committee held a meeting at San Francisco State College on March 22, 1966. [REDACTED]

JEFF FREED was the chairman of the meeting and led a discussion concerning the International Days of Protest, March 25 and 26, 1966. He said they expect from 1,000 to 15,000 people to attend the march on March 26, 1966.

FREED announced that ARTHUR GOLDBERG would speak at the University of California at Berkeley on Friday, March 25 1966, and that seats for his speech are available on a first come-first served basis. The Berkeley Vietnam Day Committee has obtained a large quantity of tickets and plans to either get up en masse and leave as GOLDBERG enters or shout him down while he tries to speak and possibly throw tomatoes.

FREED also mentioned they plan to have a teach-in on Friday, March 25, 1966, at San Francisco State College, starting at 10:30 a.m. and hope to have CARLTON GOODLETT and other speakers.

"Synopsis of meeting

- "1. A Conference of War materials manufacturers was being held in S.F. but the VDC found out about it too late, otherwise they would have picketed - Jeff F. said.
- "2. Sue Cloke and Bob Rinaldo told of their experience at the 4/12/66 night demonstration and were very critical of the way the Berkeley VDC had handled the advance planning, the monitoring, and leadership. They said that leaders in the crowd tried to incite violence against the police - Bob R. and Sue C. were very much against this. Kip Dawson spoke in defense of the Berkeley VDC saying they probably had good reason to do what was done. The people present did not show any reaction to either side. It appeared to me that they were going along with anything that was being said articulately by any 'leader'. Jeff Freed later took Kipp Dawson's side.

"meeting opened 12:15 p.m. by acting-Chairman Susan Cloke

"Note: Meeting was somewhat disorganized & followed no actual agenda

"Fred Lonidier of the Finance Committee told of Plans to hold a Poetry Reading featuring several well known local poets and an Art Auction featuring the works of local artists & students. The Poetry Reading is scheduled for Friday April 29 and the Auction on Saturday April 30.

"Posters and advertising materials have already been printed a mailing will be sent out shortly.

"The reminder of the meeting was devoted to the violent element present in the Berkeley Demonstration and to the Berkeley VDC Headquarters bombing

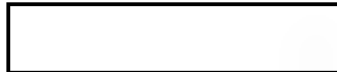

"It was noted that the Berkeley Police handled the situation as well as could & that the blame for the outbreak of violence could be placed on lack of proper monitoring, too large a crowd for the meeting place and a small band of trouble makers who goaded the police with revolutionary slogans etc.

"A vote was then called whether or not to send $100 to Berkeley to help them establish a new headquarters. The accompanying letter was modified by the deletion of any suggestions on how to run their office and demonstrations.

He berated the membership for not working to keep the VDC going.

"2. The last Workshop (educational) was cancelled because only 3 people showed up.

"3. Sue Cloke said that the education committee of the VDC will not do any work for the rest of the semester because of lack of workers, and grades.

"4. It was mentioned, and the atmosphere of the meeting showed, that the VDC will be "slow" the rest of the semester.

"5. A meeting will be held later to discuss summer activities. But SFSC will not have an active organization this summer. Jeff Freed said he would be on campus this summer but he did not think there would be enough people here to do anything.

"6. On May 14 when the first draft test is scheduled for SFSC, the VDC and certain college professors will demonstrate in protest against the test.

"7. The Berkeley teach-in on May 20th is still tentative.

"8. Fred L. and Sue Cloke mentioned and others agreed that all semester long people have not been keeping their commitments. People have not been doing things they signed up to do; People have not been sitting at the table, helping on the newsletter, or even volunteering 20 minutes of their time to put up posters, etc. There was silence at these remarks,

It was learned that HAL SUPRIANO will be leaving this coming weekend for New York. He has been given a job by a private welfare agency and he said it is imminent that he will be sent to the Caribbean area, probably to a group of islands below Nassau and the Bahamas. He also said that he might be sent to Guatemala for awhile. Nevertheless, he said he will not go to South America for many reasons, including the unpopularity of American citizens in those countries. He also said that he is going to be very cautious about his activities and will not go to Cuba. When asked about being fired from his job, he replied that he is trying to rally some mass support for himself from groups to bring pressure on the Welfare Department. In addition to this, he has asked that certain schools not send volunteers for group work to the welfare agency.

In the event the Welfare Department decides to offer him his old job back, he said that they will know where they can reach him and he will rush home from wherever he is. It is expected that his job will not carry past about mid-summer and he will probably return to San Francisco no later than the first of August. It was also mentioned that he will be accompanied by a girl named SUE (possibly SUE WITKOVSKY) although this is unclear at this time.

Meeting of the San Francisco
Community CP Youth Club, 5/24/66

The topic of discussion groups and contact classes for possible CP recruits was also brought up. Apparently they have not been too successful and are being reorganized. Reasons for the classes not being successful include conflicting times of the students who are available for these classes. Apparently the classes will be divided into three groups--the Du Bois Club, a student group, and a working-class type group. Most of the recruits are either students or artist-type people, such as photographers and artists. Although some of the recruits are older people, it was mentioned that this will not hamper their coming into one of the CP youth clubs. Not all of the people contacted for these classes are potential recruits, but are wanted simply for their ideas on the current CP program.

Names of most of the potential recruits are as follows:

ELLEN ESTRIN (formerly a member of the San Francisco Community CP Youth Club, but due to personality clashes with some of the members refuses to come around; hence, the Party is planning to re-recruit her. She was also mentioned to have recently broken up with a person named CARY.)

ROGER _____ (He may be a coordinator with GUY SANDLER in the San Francisco State College Tutorial Program.)

STEVE LOPEZ

FRED and PAT THALHEIMER (He is a professor at San Francisco State College)

JUDY PALMER

DAVE ROTHSTEIN

BOB RINALDO

JEFF FREED (Refused and will not come to the classes)

DAVE CASTRO (CASTRO is aware that he is a potential recruit, but he does not want to get the Party in any trouble and does not want to get himself in trouble with his parole officer. At this point, the Party would probably not recruit him.)

At the next meeting of this club which will be held on May 29, 1966, Party security will be mentioned or discussed.
The reason for this is twofold. One reason is because KATHIE OLSEN was recently interviewed by an FBI Agent. The other reason is the fact that in the future some Party meetings will possibly be open to potential recruits and interested people.
In lieu of open Party meetings, there might be Party activities which might include weekly dinners at ARCHIE BROWN's home. The first such dinner will be held June 1, 1966, and while it is mainly assumed that this will be a social affair, it will get around to politics eventually. The meetings as yet are not open.

It was announced that the delegates from this area to the CP convention have been instructed not to accept the current CP program as it stands. It is not known to this source what changes are desired, but the delegates have been ordered not to accept this program unless they are personally convinced otherwise while at the convention. The CP program will be discussed at length at the coming contact classes and all CP youth club members have been instructed to attend these classes.

KATHIE OLSEN is taking a leave of absence from the Party for about six weeks. The reason given is that she has great personal problems which she has to resolve and while she will not be active in the County Committee, she will attend meetings of it. HAL SUPRIANO said he had heard a rumor that she was taking a job out of the city in the near future.

GENE DENNIS mentioned that recently KATHIE OLSEN had been interviewed by an FBI Agent at her job. He said he was appalled by the fact that the FBI apparently knows so much about their activities.

Discussions will also be held in the near future on a Party idea of building a hard core of CP members and trying to develop a loose puffery to act as a buffer to infiltrate ideas to the public.

Buddhist Protests Show Instability of Viet Gov't

By JEFFREY P. FREED

TODAY, as during the past weeks, anti-Saigon-U.S. demonstrations are wrecking the already shaky political situation in South Vietnam. Correspondents from South Vietnam liken these new upheavals to the famous "Buddhist Crisis" in the spring of 1963 which signaled the end of the Diem-Nhu regime. A closer investigation of the current protests reveals a qualitatively different situation that more than likely will have greater significance than did the Buddhist uprisings in 1963.

On June 11, 1963 Buddhist monk Thich Quang Duc burned himself to death in protest of Diem-Nhu suppression of Buddhist opposition to the Saigon regime. Yet, despite five months of continuous demonstrations from June to October 1963, in the final analysis it was the military, not the Buddhists, who overthrew Diem, for Ngo Dinh Diem during this period had managed to suppress systematically the Buddhist religious and secular hierarchy and the student demonstrators. When the end finally came for Diem it was through a military coup d'etat led by Lt. Colonels Tung, Khoi, and Dinh.

The present anti-Ky demonstrations are drawn from a broader base than were the demonstrations in 1963. Perhaps the only similarities between the present situation and those in 1963 are their origins in the city of Hue and the presence of Buddhists, both in the leadership and in the ranks of the demonstrators. However, marked differences do exist:

1. Civil officials in northern and central South Vietnam are in open opposition to the Saigon Regime.

2. Large sections of the South Vietnamese Business community have shown open resentment of the Saigon Regime and have joined or have co-operated with the demonstrators.

3. For the first time powerful Roman Catholic leaders are in opposition to Saigon.

4. South Vietnamese army units stationed in north and central South Vietnam are in open rebellion to Saigon.

5. Peasant participation in acts of protest in urban centers has increased significantly in the past few weeks.

6. Recent opposition to Saigon has begun to take on a definite anti-American tone.

MILITANT BUDDHISTS

An important factor in the increasing militancy of the South Vietnamese protestors' opposition to Saigon and the U.S. is the subtle shift in the reins of power among the Buddhist led Luc Luong Tranh Thu Cach Mang (Force Fighting for Revolution), an organization established during the anti-Diem protests in 1963. Formerly the reins of power over Buddhist political activity were held by Thich Tam Chau and Thich Tri Quang, both leaders in the Unified Buddhist Church; the present situation finds these two powerful Buddhist leaders split into factions.

At present, Thich Tam Chau, head of the Buddhist Institute and Pagoda in Saigon, is taking a more conciliatory attitude towards Marshal Ky. Thich Tri Quang, titular head of the Buddhists in South Vietnam, has tended to take a more militant anti-Saigon stand. Backing up Tri Quang is Thich Thien Minh, a Buddhist monk who is the leader of the secular Buddhist Youth Movement, and according to Charles Mohr of the NEW YORK TIMES (3-31-66), leader of the recent demonstrations in Hue and Danang. It is not surprising therefore that Tri Quang is being pushed to take increasingly militant anti-government stands in that his strength lies not in the religious structure of the United Buddhist Church, but in the secular and militant nature of the Force Fighting for Revolution and the Buddhist Youth Movement.

STUDENT BUDDHIST ARMY COALITION

The initiating factor in the present political crisis was the dismissal of General Nguyen Chanh Thi as commander of the First Corps military district by Marshal Ky, yet, his dismissal cannot be viewed as the reason for the crisis, but rather the last straw that only brought to the surface deep-rooted disaffection by army personnel and civilians with the ~~Saigon~~ regime.

This disaffection within the army could be seen by the 190,000 desertions from ARVN in 1964-1965, and in the presence of large numbers of troops in the demonstrations in Hue-Danang.

Moreover, correspondent Jack Foisie reported that army units were giving their full cooperation to the protesting Buddhists and students by providing transportation in military vehicles for peasants going to the demonstrations in Hue-Danang (S. F. Chronicle, 3-29-66). In other actions ARVN troops supporting the demonstrators are preparing to resist attempts by Marshal Ky to regain control of north and central South Vietnam by force.

ANTI-KY, ANTI-U.S., THE SAME FOE

The recent events in South Vietnam have shown that increasingly large numbers of Vietnamese people are able to perceive that any regime sitting in Saigon, other than one installed through free and open elections including the National Liberation Front, is merely a puppet of the United States. The U. S., while not pulling all the strings in Saigon, has sought to establish a semi-colony in South Vietnam by giving support and direction to the most reactionary elements within Vietnam. In the last three years the Vietnamese people have engaged in a constant struggle to regain their right of self-determination by precipitating the overthrow of Diem and those who have followed him.

The qualitative difference between the overthrow of Diem and the other juntas and dictatorships and the present attempts to overthrow Ky is the realization by a growing number of Buddhists and students that the real enemy is the United States. The U.S. has already made plans to salvage its suzerainty over any new Saigon regime by openly throwing its weight behind the so-called "moderate" Buddhist faction headed by Thich Tam Chaux according to U.S. officials in Saigon (S.F. Chronicle 4-9-66). The U.S. does not plan to be left "out in the cold" if a new coup d'etat takes place. They will support Ky, while at the same time seeking to gain control over any movement that might overthrow the ruling military junta.

WHAT NEXT IN VIETNAM?

No one can predict with any amount of certainty the future of opposition to Ky and the United States. It is likely that the demonstrations will continue until they are either suppressed or lead to a fundamental change in political alignments in South Vietnam. What is important for the future is not the political upheavals per se, but rather, their new found perspective -- Anti-Americanism. It is likely that the Vietnamese war for national liberation will gain many new adherents during the ensuing weeks.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL DAYS OF PROTEST
AUGUST 6-9, 1966

Copies of this memorandum have been furnished local intelligence agencies of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and to the U. S. Secret Service and United States Attorney, San Francisco.

Reference is made to San Francisco memorandum dated July 11, 1966, concerning a march up Market Street, San Francisco, on August 6, 1966, in conjunction with the Third International Days of Protest. The march was to have started at 1:00 p.m. from the Ferry Building (Drumm Street), San Francisco, proceed up Market Street, to Colden Gate Avenue, and would end at the Federal Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, with a rally at the Federal Building at 3:00 p.m.

Director THOMAS FITZPATRICK, Intelligence Unit and Bureau of Special Services, San Francisco Police Department, on July 21, 1966, advised that on July 13, 1966, the following individuals were among the six who contacted him concerning the application for the parade permit up Market Street on August 6, 1966:

J. L. BERNARD, Canyon, Contra Costa County, California. Represented the August 6th-9th Committee, Steering Committee member.

ALLAN BROTSKY, Attorney.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL DAYS OF PROTEST
AUGUST 6-9, 1966

GEORGE EWART, JR., represented the August 6th-9th Committee and the Progressive Labor Party (PLP).

JEFFREY FREED, represented San Francisco State College Vietnam Day Committee.

JAMES LEONARD BERNARD was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on January 28, 1965. He admitted attending a meeting of the Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (POC) in San Francisco in June, 1964. He stated he attended as an observer with his father-in-law, AL PLUMMER, one of the principals in organizing the meeting. He said he was not a member of the Communist Party (CP) or the POC. He described himself as a pacifist and said he disagreed with violence.

A characterization of the POC is contained in the appendix.

A source related in 1950 that he had been a member of the Lawyers Group of the CP in San Francisco from 1935-1950. He recalled ALLAN BROTSKY was one of those who joined the group some time during the 1940s.

A second source on May 17, 1966, identified GEORGE EWART, JR. as a current member of the PLP.

A characterization of the PLP is contained in the appendix.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL DAYS OF PROTEST
AUGUST 6-9, 1966

A third source has related that as of November, 1965, JEFFREY FREED was a member of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA).

A characterization of the DCA is contained in the appendix.

Director FITZPATRICK further advised on July 21, 1966, that following the discussion with the above-mentioned individuals, plans now are that the group will march from the Ferry Building, San Francisco, at 11:00 a.m., on one side of Market Street, and will proceed to the San Francisco Civic Center Plaza, where a rally will take place at 1:00 p.m.

On July 20, 1966, a fourth source furnished a copy of a mimeographed leaflet captioned, "MEMBERSHIP MEETING, Aug. 6-9 Committee." The leaflet called the reader's attention to a working committee meeting of the August 6th-9th Committee on July 21, 1966, at 7:30 p.m., Room 11, Wheeler Hall, University of California, Berkeley, California, followed by a report from these committees to the general membership at 8:15 a.m.

The leaflet also invited the recipient to learn to "Snake Dance" at a rally on Sproul Hall steps on July 22, 1966, at 12:00 noon. The leaflet related that the rally was being sponsored by the August 6th-9th Committee. According to the leaflet, in Japan, when left-wing students protest, demonstrate, or riot, they employ a tactic known as the Snake Dance. "It is an effective weapon against police or hecklers intruding into their demonstrations." The leaflet stated the August 6th-9th Committee may decide to make use of this Oriental tactic in the Market Street march on August 6, 1966. The leaflet commented that the main purpose of the rally was to teach the University of California, Berkeley, students how to snake dance so they may participate in the demonstration effectively. "If you intend to march, now or in the future, it is important that you learn to Snake Dance."

THIRD INTERNATIONAL DAYS OF PROTEST
AUGUST 6-9, 1966

On July 20, 1966, fourth source also furnished a copy of an undated mimeographed "Dear Friends" letter issued by the August 6th-9th Committee. The letter remarked that the August 6th demonstration would have an impact on the people of the Bay area and to the general television-viewing public. Therefore, rather than submerging their group identity into the overall demonstration, organizations would be presenting themselves in their own names. Each will express itself in its own way, but all the groups will be united in protesting the same thing. The letter stated, "To accomplish this, we urge you to march down Market Street as an organization, carrying your own signs, banners, slogans and displays. If you can come up with imaginative and creative visual effects (costumes, puppets, masks, etc.), present them as a group."

The letter informed that the rally at the San Francisco Civic Center Plaza would begin with a few significant speakers and entertainers (hopefully an anti-war play or pageant). The second part would entail having organizations set up tables, booths, and discussion groups in various parts of the Civic Center. The letter added that the crowd would be urged to disperse around the plaza, to get into discussion, arguments or debates, to ask questions and to pick up information.

The letter concluded by remarking that the August 6th-9th Committee was in need of money to finance the August 6th activity, therefore, donations are needed, but contributions could also be in the form of loans repayable from the collections which would take place on August 6th.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a West Coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "This paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on pages 142-143:

1. Found to be "a new Communist splinter group." The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party "also known as the POC * * * was formed in August 1958 by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus.

"The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of 'disruptive, factional, anti-party activities.'

"The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U. S. party***.

"The one fact that is completely clear today is that the POC group is made up of hard-core, dedicated, and extremist Communists, who, despite their present differences with the Communist Party leadership, are intent upon doing all within their power to speed the achievement of the goals of international communism.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. These delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965, identities of those serving on the NEC has varied; however, according to a third source as of May, 1966, thirteen of the fifteen members of the NEC were members of the CP in the San Francisco Bay area.

As of May, 1966, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 1830 Fell Street, San Francisco, California.

VIET NAM WAR BLAMED FOR DU BOIS BOMBING

"Of course there are Communists in our organization. Anybody can join."

So proclaimed Mathew (Dynamite) Hallinan, national committeeman of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, during a Friday Speakers Platform rally.

The noontime gathering wasn't attracting to many students until Hallinan began his oration.

He summarized the reasons for the Sunday morning bombing of the Club's national headquarters in San Francisco by saying that "the brutality of Viet Nam makes people inured to violence and murder. They are reluctant to put down any violence in the South.

"This poses a serious threat to democracy."

Viet Nam wasn't the only problem blamed for the violence the Du Bois Club currently records.

Referring to Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach's order that the Club register as a Communist front organization, Hallinan said, "I blame the violence on Katzenbach. Without his stamp of approval, it never would have come to this."

During the rally, anti-Du Bois Club literature was being circulated by unidentified students.

Disting the "facts" about the Club, it warned students that "you are the target, don't be the victim."

The pamphlet was published by the Catholic War Veterans, Department of Pennsylvania, but many students refused a copy.

Another speaker, Jeff Freed, representing the Viet Nam Day Committee, defied anyone "to name any Communist action organization that controls the Club."

"Basically," he said, "they are only attempting to frighten you. Are you going to be

"people inured to violence"
frightened out?"

One student timidly replied,
"yes."

Freed explained that his tactics would be to use the "blow their minds" method of fighting the order.

"We're going to blow all your minds by calling everyone comrade."

Jimmy Garrett, a student and member of SNCC who joined the DuBois Club recently, had less to say than the others, but advised everyone to "keep disrupting and keep in motion."

Dale Gronemeier agreed with the other speakers especially concerning the "total irresponsibility of the McCar-ren Act," which requires all Communist front organizations to register with the Federal Government.

Gronemeier West Coast
Regional Director of the National Committee to abolish HUAC, said that "the McCar-ren Act, written 15 years ago, has to be rewritten.

"It was constructed so that no group can register. Since its inception, 23 groups and 34 individuals have been ordered to register as Communists or Communist organizations.

"All of these cases have been thrown out of court," Gronemeier said, "but most of the groups involved have been driven out of existence."

Those ordered to register are also fined $10,000 per day until they do so. Hallinan said,
"We will spend almost no time, energy or money in courts on this."

"We will step up our program by fighting against the immediate issues—Viet Nam, the civil rights issue, and other problems.

"There must be an alternative to the mess we're living in today."

Gronemeier commended the Club on its response to the Katzenbach order. "The response has been magnificent.

"The DuBois Club has become the central battleground in the fight for civil liberty.
The DuBois Club fight is everyone's fight."

At that moment he took a dollar bill from his wallet and joined the Club himself, since
"their fight is my fight."

To emphasize a "positive concept of blackness," the SF State Negro Student Association has changed its name to the Black Student Union.

BSU president Marrianna Waddy explained, "In view of the current world thing and the emergence of Africa as an important entity in the world scene, we thought we would attempt to incorporate the eminent and profound concept of blackness as a positive force in the students' education at SF State."

The change in title is to "correct erroneous historical connotations of the word 'black,' she said.

The word "Negro" is considered by the BSU to be a "euphemism for irrefutable reality," Miss Waddy said.

In looking for a name, the NSA also considered Afro-American Students and Soul Students.

But the name is not all that the members wanted to change. The BSU has developed a new philosophy and program.

The BSU wants to develop not only responsibility of membership to the organization, Miss Waddy said, but the privilege and honor of being a part of the Union.

"We want to acculturate in the black student a learning experience of the depth and breadth of culture heritage, not only as he has experienced it in the United States, but also in the world," she added.

The BSU has set up a financial assistance program with a loan fund for members to pay tuition and fees and a scholarship fund based on leadership ability.

The academic part of the new program is comprised of:

- A tutorial program in which members of the organization tutor each other for classes.

- A Community Lecture Tour of Bay Area high schools and junior colleges to "give insight and encourage black high school students to come to SF State."

- A newspaper to be circulated within the Bay Area informing students of the programs and services at SF State.

Although the organization has a new name and program, they have not changed their constitution.

"Anyone," Miss Waddy stressed, "is welcome to join the Black Student Union."

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 8/11/66

On Saturday, August 6, 1966, the Third International Days of Protest demonstrators began gathering shortly after 10:00am at Market and Drumm Streets. Many of them carried placards and/or banners which carried slogans critical of U. S. policy in Vietnam. According to their signs organizations represented included Young Socialist Alliance, Progressive Labor, SLATE and CNVA.

Individuals recognized in the assembly area included JEFF FREED, who acted as a parade organizer utilizing a blow horn; CLAUDE BEAGARIE, who acted as a photographer, MAX BEAGARIE, who marched in the parade; LOUIS COBET, who was selling copies of the "Militant"; MARYROSE WEINSTEIN, who marched in the parade; JOAN KRAMER, who also marched in the parade, CARL BLOICE, who acted as a monitor, plus BILL DWYER and PAT THALHEIMER, who were observed milling about the assembly area.

Between 11:15am and 11:30am the participants began marching up Market Street to the Civic Center Plaza where a rally was held.

IR study -- Vietnam and military theory

The International Relations Center will base today's Task Force foray into the Vietnam war on the theories of the world's foremost military theorist.

Jeffrey Freed, graduate student in International Relations, said the meeting, which is scheduled for 3 p.m. in HLL 362, would attempt to demonstrate the relationship between the military theories of Carl von Clausewitz and a de-escalation of the Vietnam War.

"Our Task Force briefing on the escalation of the war will show the correlation between political goals and military efforts," Freed said.

Freed said the theory that a country's military posture is directly related to its political goals is taken directly from Clausewitz's book on military theory, "On War."

The Task Force is under the direction of associate professor Marshall Windmiller of the International Relations Department.

"The briefings are led by the different members of the Task Force," Freed said, "and each one of us is a specialist in the economic, military, political, or cultural affairs of an area."

The Task Force's next meeting, Nov. 23, will examine the internal structure of the National Liberation Front (NFL), the political arm of the Viet Cong.

The meeting will discuss the inter-relationships of the NFL, the Communists, and North Vietnam. The information has taken over a year and a half to compile.

"None of this information is really secret," Freed said, "and any student could pick it up in the library if he's willing to sit down for three or four hours."

This semester the Task Force classes are limited to studying Southeast Asia and Latin America, but expansion into other areas is planned for next semester, Freed said.

IR study -- Vietnam and military theory

The International Relations Center will base today's Task Force foray into the Vietnam war on the theories of the world's foremost military theorist.

Jeffrey Freed, graduate student in International Relations, said the meeting, which is scheduled for 3 p.m. in HLL 362, would attempt to demonstrate the relationship between the military theories of Carl von Clausewitz and a de-escalation of the Vietnam War.

"Our Task Force briefing on the escalation of the war will show the correlation between political goals and military efforts," Freed said.

TO: SAC, CHICAGO (100-42889)
FROM: SA PHILIP R. WANERUS
SUBJECT: W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA - NATIONAL

DATE: 1-27-67

On 10/31/66, Lieutenant FRANK HEIMOSKI, Bureau of Inspectional Services, Security Unit, Chicago Police Department, an agency which collects security information in the Chicago area, furnished SA PHILIP WANERUS two xerox copies each of numerous names and addresses. HEIMOSKI stated that a confidential source of his agency had made these xeroxes available, and that the source advised that the originals of these names and addresses had been in the recent possession of the National Office of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America, 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

The significance of these names and addresses is unknown at this time. However, it appears that this is a mailing list.

One complete set of the xerox copies is being retained in Chicago file 100-42889-1B. The other set has been sequenced to the area indicated by the individual addresses, and is being furnished to the below indicated offices for whatever action they may deem appropriate.

MEMORANDUM

TO : SAC, CHICAGO (100-42889)

DATE: 12-23-66

FROM : SA PHILIP R. WANERUS

SUBJECT: W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA
IS - C

On October 13, 1966, Lieutenant FRANK HEIMOSKI, Bureau of Inspectional Services, Security Unit, Chicago Police Department, an agency which collects security information in the Chicago area, furnished SA PHILIP R. WANERUS two xerox copies each of numerous cards containing names, addresses, occupations, schools or places of employment and chapters. HEIMOSKI stated that a confidential source of this agency had made these xeroxes available and that the source advised that the originals of these cards had been in the recent possession of the National Office of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America, 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois. The significance of these cards is not known at this time.

One complete set of the xerox copies is being retained in Chicago File 100-42889-1B. The other set has been sequenced to the area indicated on the individual cards and is being furnished to the below indicated offices for whatever action they may deem appropriate.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

A source advised on August 1, 1960, that the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was formed approximately in the early part of 1938 and the Oakland Branch of the SWP was formed in the latter part of 1938.

A second source advised on October 26, 1959, that the name of the Oakland Branch of the SWP was changed to the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP.

A third source advised on April 22, 1966, that the San Francisco Branch and the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP follow the policies and directives of the National SWP with which they are affiliated.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

UNITED COMMITTEE AGAINST THE WAR
aka United Committee,
United Committee to End the War
in Vietnam

The December 1, 1966, issue of the "Activist", self-described as newsletter of the United Committee Against the War (UCAW), advised in an article that UCAW was formed on August 11, 1966, at Berkeley, California. The article further advised that "the aim of the United Committee is to bring together activist independent committees (anti-Vietnam) while at the same time coordinating with all groups for major anti-war projects . . ."

In October and November, 1966, three sources identified UCAW as an organization in the San Francisco Bay Area whose activities were directed toward protesting United States' policy in Vietnam and which is controlled and dominated by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA).

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka. the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

---

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later state in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

A second source advised April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals: The San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

The first source advised on April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Oakland Branch SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nation-wide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 23, 1966, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 23, 1966, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC). The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 535, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

GEOFFREY WHITE was distributing Spartacist Committee literature in the vicinity of Second and Market Streets.

First Special Agent of the
FBI, By Observation, 4/15/67

A characterization for the Spartacist Committee is contained in the characterization for the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International.

HELEN LIMA was distributing copies of a four-page printed leaflet at Second and Market Streets, captioned "Communist Party Statement on the Vietnam War by GUS HALL, General Secretary, C.P.U.S.A." A copy of the statement follows.

Second Special Agent of the
FBI, By Observation, 4/15/67

In the April 15, 1967, issue of the "People's World" (PW) there appeared an article captioned "The Communist View Demand Must Be 'Cease Aggression'." The article referred to the above-mentioned statement and commented the statement had been issued in connection with the Spring Mobilization Against the War and represented the Communist view on the war.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Communist Party Statement on the Vietnam War

By Gus Hall, General Secretary, C. P. U. S. A.

We Communists join with the majority of the people of our country in demanding an end to U. S. aggression against the people of Vietnam. We join in giving our full support to the general slogans against the war that express the sentiment of the millions of Americans who today protest our Government's policy of aggression.

We believe the struggle against the war in Vietnam--and against the policies of the Pentagon and the White House that each day directs the war to new levels of cruelty and suffering--will be victorious. This victory will be won through the ever-growing popular demand to end the bombing, to end the war.

Each new step of escalation of the war must become a signal for greater unity among all who oppose the war, and for greater determination to end this criminal policy.

As we join with hundreds of diverse organizations and individuals in protest against the Vietnam war, we do not require or expect them to accept our estimation or our understanding of the events surrounding the war and the anti-war movement itself.

As we work together to build the unity of all forces opposing the war in Vietnam we ask you, however, to respect the reasoning and additional factors that motivate our participation in this struggle in the same manner in which we respect the motivation of others.

The development of unity in struggle is a dynamic process. When areas of agreement among diverse groups engaged in struggle emerge as the dominant trend in that struggle, the result is a united force. Mass resistance to U.S. aggression in Vietnam is rooted in such a dominant trend. What unites diverse groups is their opposition to our Government's war policy. There are different views of the causes and the cure for that war policy, but there is growing united opposition to the war.

There is both unity and diversity in the struggle against the war.

We ask for peace no less than anyone else. But with us it is not an abstraction. Peace is wonderful but not possible in all circumstances. Peace must come with justice and justice must come with peace. In Vietnam it must be a peace that is just to the people of Vietnam for the very important reason that they are the victims of the aggression. There can be no peace if the people of Vietnam come under U.S. colonial suppression. Peace can come only when the issue that has brought on the war is resolved, when the people of Vietnam have the inalienable right of self-determination.

We are for ending the war in Vietnam, but an end to this mass murder can come only with an end to U.S. aggression and the policy of aggression.

The call for a "cease fire by both sides" had one meaning before U.S. troops landed on Vietnamese territory. A call for a cease-fire today is a call for the Vietnamese to halt their just struggle against an aggressor. A cease fire without explicit assurance that it is related to a withdrawal of the forces of aggression would be a surrender. Instead of "cease fire," the demand must be "cease the aggression."

We are for negotiations. But there can be meaningful negotiations only if they are for the purpose of ending the aggression, for withdrawal of U.S. armed forces, and only if they are based on the unconditional acceptance of the right of self-determination and independence of Vietnam. There can be no meaningful negotiations if the aggressor plans to use them toward the end of remaining as a force on the territory of Vietnam or in Southeast Asia with the purpose of domination in any degree over the people of Vietnam.

We are for an unconditional and immediate end to the bombing of the territory of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam as an initial step in ending the aggression.

We are for de-escalation, but we are for de-escalation as the first step in the process of complete U.S. withdrawal.

We fully agree with most Americans that the U.S. policy is immoral and contrary to all human and legal conventions. But it is more than that. It is criminal and unjust because the aggression is motivated and propelled solely by the profit interests of a small circle of U.S. corporations. It is an imperialist aggression. It is a crime against the Vietnamese people. It is a crime against the best interests of the American people.

We are for an end to the aggression because each step of escalation draws the war closer to a world war, and it is impossible to visualize a world war that is not a nuclear war.

Because of our deep concern about these events we are for the building of a united movement of diverse groups against the policies of U.S. aggression. We view all acts as criminal, whether in the U.S. or anywhere in the world, that tend to divide the ranks of the forces opposing the policy of aggression. We are for a struggle for unity to create the necessary unity in struggle.

Today's actions must serve to create that greater unity through which the American people can change the course of our country from the course of war to one of peace.

SPRING MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM (SMCEWV)

ARCHIE BROWN was in the vicinity of Second and Market Streets, where he was acting as a monitor with a bullhorn in forming the labor committee unit for the march.

Second Special Agent of the
FBI, By Observation, 4/15/67

Captioned committee's march commenced in San Francisco at 10:40 a.m., April 15, 1967, from Second and Market Streets, with the first marchers arriving at Kezar Stadium at 12:22 p.m. and the last marcher entering the Stadium at approximately 2:30 p.m. April 15, 1967, a distance of approximately four (4) miles. One of the monitors of the march was BETTINA APTHEKER who was wearing a yellow arm band.

The majority of marchers were beatniks and hippies who were conspicuous with their long hair, unkempt beards, sandals, boots, headbands, and multi-colored wearing apparel. They were for the most part teenagers and those in their early twenties.

Inspector BENJAMIN LASHKOFF,
SFPD, 4/15/67

When the marchers passed the corner of Larkin Street and Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, where ARCHIE BROWN was acting as a monitor for the purpose of stopping the protest marchers and allowing cross-traffic to proceed, the number of protest marchers was estimated at approximately 23,800. This did not include some 80 individuals who followed the marchers with signs urging support of the United States in Vietnam and who chanted, "Take a bath! Take a bath!"

Third Special Agent of the
FBI, By Observation, 4/15/67

At approximately 1:50 p.m., when the marchers reached the corner of Fell and Masonic Streets, San Francisco, they were met by six members of the American Nazi Party (ANP) who were dressed in their uniforms. One of the male protest marchers had his sign torn up by MICHAEL BROWN, 2318 Courtland Avenue, Oakland, California, who was dressed in his ANP uniform.

SPRING MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE TO

A check of the records of the Bureau of Identification, SFPD, on April 15, 1967, revealed traffic warrants were outstanding against BROWN. He was arrested on the traffic warrants by members of the SFPD and the male protest marcher was told BROWN could not be arrested by the SFPD since the charge of Assault and Battery was a misdemeanor and was not committed in their presence. The protest marcher was told if he so desired, he should contact the San Francisco District Attorney on April 17, 1967, for filing a complaint against BROWN. The remaining five ANPers were placed in a Yellow Cab driven by a Negro and were taken away from the area.

Sergeant ED EPTING, SFPD, 4/15/67

The theme of the signs carried by the protest marchers urged withdrawal of United States troops from Vietnam and protested United States foreign policy in Vietnam.

The following messages appeared among the signs carried by the protest marchers:

"Springtime is Peacetime"

"Stop the Slaughter"

"Fry LBJ--Not Kids"

At the rally at Kezar Stadium, April 15, 1967, there was a maximum of about 55,000 people and they included people who joined the march from the sidewalk, those who joined the parade at the mobilization point in the Panhandle Area at Oak and Masonic Streets, one-half mile from Kezar Stadium, and those who had gone directly to the Stadium.

Inspector LASHKOFF, SFPD, 4/15/67

There were some 55,000 people in attendance at the rally, with approximately 98 per cent of them of the white race and the majority of them being under 25 years of age. The majority of them in the Stadium based on their wearing apparel and general appearance were hippies and beatniks.

The program for the rally commenced at 3:30 p.m., with a Human Rights Cantata which was introduced by KIPP DAWSON. The theme of the 23 speakers was the immediate withdrawal of United States troops from Vietnam and the protesting of United States foreign policy in Vietnam.

One of the speakers at the rally was Rabbi ABRAHAM FEINBERG who discussed his recent trip to North Vietnam. He stated the war in Vietnam was unjustified, unspeakable, and unworthy. Rabbi FEINBERG commented that all the world desired peace, and to dissent with government policy was sometimes a higher form of patriotism. He added war was too dangerous to leave to the generals, and the bombing of North Vietnam would not make the Vietnamese people surrender. Rabbi FEINBERG's conclusion was, if the United States was in a place where it should not be, then the decent thing to do would be to get out.

ROBERT SCHEER spoke at the rally. He described the United States policy in Vietnam as "one of extermination."

ROBERT VAUGHN, co-star of the television program, "The Man From UNCLE," also spoke and stated among other things, "We talk of losing face without realizing that we've already lost it, irrevocably."

Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., spoke as one of the featured speakers. When she spoke which was near the end of the program, the crowd had dwindled to some 2,000 people, with people leaving throughout her speech.

Mrs. KING, JR., warned that moral values would wither away in America in "the hypocritical name of rationalism."

"San Francisco Examiner," a
San Francisco daily newspaper,
4/16/67

At a Steering Committee meeting of the SMCEWV in April, 1967, mention was made that Mrs. KING would be presented as one of the final speakers and this would be for the purpose of keeping the crowd in the Stadium as long as possible.

First Source, 4/67

KIPP DAWSON began the program, following the performance of a Human Rights Cantata. She welcomed the "65,000" persons to Kezar Stadium, and welcomed such groups as labor, black men and women who were "sick of war," physicians and surgeons, social workers, business and professionals, and youth and students. She remarked that one section of youths who was not with the group were those youths who had been "drafted to fight this dirty war." She added the drafted youths were "beginning to stand up and protest as soldiers," and "we" must encourage them.

Among those who spoke at the rally were the following:

Rabbi FEINBERG was introduced as being from Toronto, Canada. He told of his visit to North Vietnam and characterized the war in Vietnam as "senseless, unspeakable, unjustifiable." He described the Vietnam war as "the most crucial moral dilemma... since the war between the States." He remarked that the "international Communist conspiracy was a myth...all the world wants peace." He denounced the war, stating that "in a nuclear age, war is too dangerous to leave to the generals."

DAVE JENKINS of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union described San Francisco as a city which had a great tradition of demonstrations. He read telegrams of greetings and support from various countries. He also made a "pitch" for money.

ROBERT SCHEER remarked that General WESTMORELAND had stated that the Vietnamese people would have to "bleed more" to learn that they had met their match in this war. SCHEER commented that despite the United States' "intervention" in Vietnam, there would be "other Vietnams" as other rising groups and countries had their own nationalist expressions. SCHEER went on to say that "other people will make revolutions" and thus, the United States would have to go into other countries. If other people "want Communist revolutions, so be it." SCHEER remarked that "the people who run the United States do not understand freedom." SCHEER spoke of the napalm and the fragmentation bombs used in Vietnam and said that "we have killed 600,000 people in Vietnam," and the policy of the United States in Vietnam was "anti-human." SCHEER concluded by stating, "The face of the United States is the face of the B-52."

ROBERT VAUGHN was introduced as the star of the television program "The Man From UNCLE." He contended the United States was talking peace while escalating war and the "face has been lost." He deplored that "we the people by and large have no empathy for what is happening in Vietnam or we wouldn't let it happen." VAUGHN went on to say, "A brand of fascism reigns under the guise of Americanism." He commented that "America is beginning to emulate the decadent societies of the past," and asked, "When in the name of justice are we going to wake up?"

Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., greeted the audience as "friends of freedom, fellow peace-makers," and commented that the term "peace-maker" was particularly appropriate because it appeared in the Bible. She further remarked "our efforts" must continue "no matter how much we are maligned by the right-wingers." She said she was in San Francisco "here as a Negro" and she had seen "oppressed people respond to bombing and violence."

WOMEN FOR PEACE aka
Women Strike for Peace

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Berkeley, California, contained an article in the November 19, 1965, evening edition reflecting that in November, 1961, when concern mounted over radioactive fallout from nuclear testing, a group of women in Washington, D. C. started Women Strike for Peace. The idea spread rapidly throughout the country and now embraces 900 groups, including Women For Peace groups in the San Francisco Bay area.

These groups support programs to achieve goals such as:

- (1) Continued disarmament negotiations.
- (2) A strong and flexible United Nations.
- (3) Planning now at state and national levels for conversion to peace-time economy and positive efforts to ease world tensions.

The women act as individuals and as a group, with specific actions suggested by individuals and groups from all over the world. Decision to participate jointly on any given suggestion is democratically arrived at by members of the Coordinating Committee. Effective cooperation with other peace groups is encouraged. Monthly Coordinating Committee meetings and general meetings, as warranted, are open to all and announced in mailings to members. There are no dues or membership forms nor conditions for membership.

To stir an awareness of the need for peace, Women For Peace encourage public education in peace objectives at local schools and sponsor peace-oriented demonstrations and public meetings, newspaper ads, billboards, and candidates for public office. On the national level the group attempts to influence government officials by letters and conferences.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
BAY AREA CHAPTER, also known as Bay Area Fair Play for Cuba
Committee (BAFPCC)

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960, carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent election of the BAFPC the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the executive committee.

This source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPC included members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U.S. intervention in Cuba."

A second source advised on January 10, 1964, that at a BAFPC meeting in Berkeley, California, in December, 1963, it was decided to dissolve the BAFPC.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (cont'd.)

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY, ALSO KNOWN AS THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN NAZIS,
THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS,

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Va., daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell, had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Va., on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that Rockwell had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that Rockwell mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67". This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The "New York Times" City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York, and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line".

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bi-monthly magazine, "Challenge," a bi-weekly New York City newspaper, and "Spark," a West Coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

A source advised on September 9, 1964, the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International (RCFI) was also known as the Spartacist Committee and the Spartacist Group. This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1964, that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The November-December, 1965, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead described this publication as follows: "... published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publications is JAMES ROBERTSON, and its main address is Post Office Box 1377, General Post Office, New York, New York.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965, identities of those serving on the NEC has varied; however, according to a third source as of May, 1966, thirteen of the fifteen members of the NEC were members of the CP in the San Francisco Bay area.

As of July, 1966, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka. the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later state in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

A second source advised April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals: The San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

The first source advised on April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Oakland Branch SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
